

Chua Chu Kang Town Council

Whistle Blowing Policy

Chua Chu Kang Town Council is committed to maintaining high standards of professionalism and integrity in its conduct of business, and does not tolerate any form of fraudulent, illegal or unethical/improper activity. To this end, the Whistle Blowing Policy provides for the reporting of actual or suspected wrongdoings committed by any Chua Chu Kang Town Councillors, employees of the Town Council's managing agent or contractors for investigation, corrective and/or disciplinary actions.

Some examples of unethical practices include, but are not limited to:

- Theft and Fraud
- Misappropriation of Funds
- Bribery and Kickbacks

How to Raise a Concern or Make a Report

If you suspect any Chua Chu Kang Town Council Town Councillors, employees of the Town Council's managing agent or contractors to be involved in fraudulent, illegal or unethical/improper activities, please lodge a report through any of the following whistle blowing channels:

Email: whistle-blowing-io@ccktc.org.sg

Mail :

(In a sealed envelope marked "Private & Confidential")

The Whistle Blowing Investigation Officer
Chua Chu Kang Town Council
309 Choa Chu Kang Ave 4 #02-02
Choa Chu Kang Centre
Singapore 680309

The whistleblowing channels are managed by an independent Whistle Blowing Investigation Officer appointed by the Chairman of the Chua Chu Kang Town Council. Whistleblowers are encouraged to provide his/her identity when reporting a case to facilitate investigations. The whistleblower's identity will be held in the strictest confidence.